Background

As the lead partner, Vicki leads the engagement team in the execution and development of the KPMG Audit Plan. Vicki is a partner in KPMG's Boston office with more than 21 years of experience providing services to clients in the alternative investments industry.

Professional and Industry Experience

Prior to joining KPMG in 2004, Vicki was Chief Accounting Officer (CAO) of the Columbia Management Group of Funds. Vicki's responsibilities as CAO included implementation and maintenance of accounting and reporting policies, oversight of third-party accounting and custody service agents, financial statement review, and production and audit coordination. She was a member of the Columbia Valuation Committee and reported to the audit committee quarterly regarding valuation events. From May 2002 through April 2004, Vicki also served as the controller of the Columbia Funds, with direct responsibility for budget preparation and expense processing.

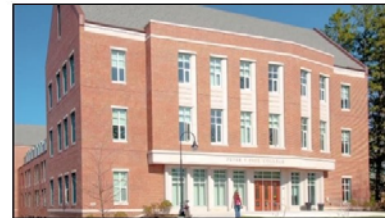

Peter T. Paul College of Business and Economics prepares individuals to lead organizations in an ever-changing global economy in ways that are innovative and contribute to a sustainable future. The school is committed to excellence in teaching, scholarship and research, and outreach. It provides a challenging intellectual environment for students and faculty. It is externally engaged and focused on creating innovative problem solvers and critical thinkers, effective communicators, and ethical leaders.
